IDENTIFICATION OF UNITS: SURVEY; SHARES IN COMMON ELEMENTS;
PROPORTIONS OF COMMON EXPENSES

1. The improvements on the land described will consist of apartment condominium units. The improvements will be constructed substantially in accordance with the plans prepared by . There is also attached hereto as Exhibit "B" a Plot Plan and Survey, showing the location of the building and the remainder of the Condominium Property.

2. The apartment condominium unit owners shall not be deemed to own the undecorated and/or unfinished surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors and ceilings surrounding the respective "Condominium Unit", nor shall the owner be deemed to own pipes, wires, conduits, or other public utility lines running through said respective "Condominium Unit", which are utilized for or serve more than one "Condominium Unit", which items are by these presents hereby made a part of the "Common Elements". Said owner, however, shall be deemed to own the walls and partitions which are contained in said owner's respective "Condominium Unit", and also shall be deemed to own the inner decorated and/or finished surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors and ceilings, including plaster, paint, wallpaper, etc.

3. Apartment Unit - Boundaries. Each condominium unit shall include that part of the building containing the unit which lies within the boundary of the unit, which boundaries are:

a. Upper and Lower Boundaries: The upper and lower boundaries of the apartment units shall be the following boundaries extended to an intersection with the perimetrical boundaries:

i. Upper Boundary: The horizontal plane of the undecorated finished ceiling.

ii. Lower Boundary: The horizontal plane of the undecorated finished floor.

b. Perimetrical Boundaries: The perimetrical boundaries of the apartment units shall be the vertical plane of the undecorated finished interior of the walls bounding the unit extended to intersections with each other and with the upper and lower boundaries.

4. If any portion of a condominium unit or Common Element encroaches upon another, a valid easement for the encroachment and the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. In the event the structure is partially or totally destroyed, and then rebuilt, encroachments of parts of the "Common Elements" or "Condominium Units", as afore-described due to construction, shall be permitted, and a valid easement for said encroachments and the maintenance thereto shall exist.

5. In connection with the floor plans and the Plot Plan, identified as Exhibit "B", the legend and notes thereon contained are incorporated herein, and made a part hereof by reference, and the said plans have been certified in the manner required by the Condominium Act.

6. Amendment of Plans. Developer reserves the right to change the interior and arrangement of all units so long as Developer owns the units, so changed and altered, provided such change shall be reflected by an Amendment of this Declaration and provided, further, that an Amendment for such purpose need be signed and acknowledged only by the Developer and need not be approved by the Corporation or Condominium unit owners or by the Condominium, whether or not elsewhere required for an Amendment.

7. Alteration of Boundaries and Condominium Unit Dimensions. Developer reserves the right to alter the boundaries between units, so long as Developer owns the units so altered; and to alter the boundaries of the common elements, so long as the Developer owns the condominium units abutting the common elements where the boundaries are being altered, provided no such change shall be made without amendment of this Declaration, and provided further, that an Amendment for such purpose need be signed and acknowledged only by the Developer and approved by the institutional mortgagee of Condominium units affected, whether the units are included in an overall mortgage on the Condominium Building, and such Amendment shall not require the approval of the Condominium unit owners or of the Corporation.

8. The common expenses of the Condominium shall be shared by the unit owners as specified and set forth in Exhibit "C". The foregoing ratio of sharing common expenses and assessments shall remain regardless of the purchase price of the Condominium Parcels, their locations, or the building square footage included in each Condominium Unit.

Any common surplus of the Corporation shall be owned by each of the unit owners in the same proportion as they are required to share in the common expenses and common elements; any common surplus being the excess of but not limited to, assessments, rents, profits and revenues on account of the common elements of this condominium over the amount of the common expenses of this Condominium.

9. Each of the unit owners of the Condominium shall own an undivided interest in the common elements and limited common elements, and the undivided interest, stated as percentages of such ownership in the said common elements and limited common elements, is set forth on Exhibit "C", which is annexed to this Declaration and made a part hereof.

The fee title to each Condominium parcel shall include both the Condominium unit and the above respective undivided interest in the common elements, said undivided interest in the common elements to be deemed to be conveyed or encumbered with its respective Condominium Unit. Any attempt to separate the fee title to a Condominium unit from the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant to each unit shall be null and void. The term "common elements", when used throughout this Declaration, shall mean both common elements and limited common elements, unless the context otherwise specifically requires.

10. Those portions of the common elements reserved for the use of certain unit owners or a certain unit owner, to the exclusion of other unit owners, are deemed limited common elements. Any expense for the maintenance, repair or replacement relating to limited common elements shall be treated as and paid for as part of the common expenses of the Association, unless otherwise specifically provided in this Declaration and Exhibits attached hereto. Should said maintenance, repair and replacement be caused by the negligence or misuse by a unit owner, his family, guests, servants and invitees, he shall be responsible therefor; and the Association shall have the right to levy an assessment against the said unit owner, which assessment shall have the same force and effect as all other special assessments.

11. All the balconies on the building which are used for ingress and egress to all of the units located on each floor are and shall remain a part of the Common Elements:

a. The balconies and terraces shown and graphically described in the Floor Plans and Plot Plan, identified as Exhibit "B" are limited common elements appurtenant to each of the apartments as shown. These limited common elements are reserved for the use of the apartments appurtenant thereto, to the exclusion of other apartments, and there shall pass with an apartment, as appurtenant thereto, the exclusive right to use the limited common elements so appurtenant.

b. Expenses of maintenance and repair relating to the interior surfaces of the limited common elements referred to in this Article shall be borne by and assessed against the individual unit owner. Any expenses of maintenance, repair or replacement relating to the exterior surfaces of such limited common elements or involving structural maintenance, repair or replacement shall be treated as and paid for as part of the common expenses of the Association.

12. The common elements may be enlarged by an amendment to this Declaration, which amendment shall include the legal description of the land owned by the Association, and shall submit the land to the terms of the Declaration of Condominium. This Amendment shall be approved and executed in the manner set forth in Article V of the Declaration and shall be executed by the Association. This Amendment shall effectively divest the Association of title to the land and shall vest the title in the unit owners, without naming them and without further conveyance, in the same proportion as the undivided shares in the common elements that are appurtenant to the units owned by them.

The Developer, by the signing of this Declaration of Condominium, hereby grants a non-exclusive easement over such streets, walks, and other parts of the condominium property used for rights-of-way serving the units of the condominium, which are necessary to provide reasonable access to the public ways.

IV

MEMBERSHIP IN THE ASSOCIATION AND VOTING RIGHTS

Membership in the Association shall be restricted to record owners of condominium units in this Condominium.

Subject to the provisions and restrictions set forth in the By-Laws of the corporation responsible for the operation of this Condominium, each unit owner is entitled to one vote for each unit owned by him.

There shall be one person with respect to each unit ownership who shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the unit owners. Such person shall be known as the "Voting Member". If a unit is owned by more than one person, the owners of said unit shall designate one of them as the Voting Member, or in the case of a corporate unit owner, an officer or employee thereof shall be the Voting Member. The designation of Voting Member shall be made as provided by and subject to the provisions and restrictions set forth in the By-Laws of the Association.

METHOD OF AMENDMENT OF DECLARATION

This Declaration may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the unit owners of this condominium, called in accordance with the By-Laws, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners. Such amendment shall be evidenced by a Certificate of the Association executed with the formalities of a Deed, and shall include the recording data identifying this

OFF REC 11031 PG 316

Declaration. This Certificate shall become effective upon its being recorded in the Public Records of Dade County, Florida.

No amendment shall change the configuration or size of any Condominium unit, in any material fashion, nor its undivided share of the Common Elements, nor a Condominium Unit's proportionate share of common expenses or common surplus, nor the voting rights appurtenant to any unit, nor materially alter or modify the appurtenances of such unit, unless the record owners thereof and all record owners of liens thereon shall join in the execution of the amendment, and provided further that said amendment shall be voted on, and evidenced and recorded in the same manner as all other amendments to this Declaration.

Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraphs of this Article V, the Developer reserves the right to change the interior design and arrangement of all units, and to alter the boundaries between units as long as the Developer owns the units so altered; however, no such change shall increase the number of units nor alter the boundaries of the common elements, except the party wall between any Condominium units, without Amendment of this Declaration in the manner hereinbefore set forth. If the Developer shall make any changes in units, as provided in this paragraph, such changes shall be reflected by the Amendment of this Declaration with a survey attached, reflecting such authorized alteration of units, and said Amendment need only be executed and acknowledged by the Developer and need not be approved by the Corporation, and any holders of institutional mortgages encumbering the said altered units. The survey shall be certified in the manner required by the Condominium Act.

If more than one unit is concerned, the Developer shall apportion between the units the shares in the common elements appurtenant to the units concerned, together with apportioning the common expenses and common surplus of the units concerned, and such shares of common elements, common expenses and common surplus, and the voting rights as set forth herein below of the units concerned shall be duly noted in the Amendment of the Declaration. If Developer subdivided a unit into two or more units, then each such unit shall have one vote. If one or more units are combined into a single unit, then such combined unit shall have the number of votes equal to the total number of units so combined. The Developer may amend to correct errors and mistakes.

No Amendment shall change the rights and privileges of the Developer without the Developer's written approval.

No Amendment shall change the provisions of this declaration with respect to mortgagees without the written approval of all institutional mortgagees of record.

VI

BY-LAWS

The operation of the condominium property shall be governed by the By-laws which are set forth in a document entitled "BY-LAWS OF DELKUS TOWERS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC." and which is annexed to this Declaration, and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "D". No modification or other amendment to the By-Laws shall be valid, unless set forth in, or annexed to, a duly recorded amendment to this Declaration. The Articles of Incorporation of DELKUS TOWERS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC., are attached hereto as Exhibit "E".

VII

MISCELLANEOUS CONDITIONS, COVENANTS AND RESTRICTIONS

A. Maintenance:

The Board of Administration of the Association may enter into a contract with any firm, person or corporation, or may join with other Condominium Associations and entities in contracting for the maintenance and repair of Condominium property or properties and other type properties, and may delegate to the contractor all the powers and duties of the Association, except such as are specifically required by this Declaration, or by the By-Laws, to have the approval of the Board of Administration or the membership of the Association.

OFF

The contractor may be authorized to collect assessments as provided by this Declaration, By-Laws and Exhibits to this Declaration.

B. Assessments:

The Association, through its Board of Administration, shall from time to time fix and determine the sum or sums necessary and adequate to provide for the common expenses of the Condominium property, and such other sums as are specifically provided for in this Declaration and the By-Laws, and the Exhibits attached hereto. The procedure for the determination of all such assessments shall be as set forth in the By-Laws of the Association and this Declaration, and the Exhibits attached hereto.

C. Assessments: Liability; Interest Collection:

1. A unit owner regardless of how title is acquired, including a purchase at a judicial sale, shall be personally liable for all assessments coming due while he is the unit owner. In a voluntary conveyance, the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the grantor for his share of the common expenses up to the time of conveyance without prejudice to any right the grantee may have to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee.

2. Assessments and installments on them which are not paid when due shall bear interest at the rate of 15% per annum from the due date until paid.

D. Liens:

The Association shall have a lien on each condominium parcel for any unpaid assessments, and interest thereon, against the unit owner of such condominium parcel, which lien shall be effective as and in the manner provided for by the Condominium Act, and shall have the priorities established by said Act. The lien of the Corporation shall also secure reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Corporation incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien. Nothing herein shall deprive a first mortgage of its prior lien.

Where the Mortgagee of a first mortgage of record or a mortgagee of a purchase money second mortgage, or other purchaser of a Condominium Unit obtains title to a Condominium Parcel as a result of foreclosure of the first mortgage, or purchase money second mortgage, or when a first mortgagee of record or a mortgagee of a purchase money second mortgage accepts a Deed to said Condominium parcel in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer of title, its successors and assigns shall not be liable for the shares of common expenses or assessments by the Association pertaining to such Condominium Parcel, or chargeable to the former unit owner of such parcel, which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of the foreclosure or the acceptance of such Deed in lieu of foreclosure, unless such shares are secured by a claim of lien for assessments that are recorded prior to the recording of such mortgage. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectible from all of the unit owners, including such acquirer, its successors and assigns.

Any person who acquires an interest in a unit, except through foreclosure of a first mortgage of record or purchase money mortgage, or by acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, as specifically provided herein, including, without limitation, persons acquiring title by operation of law, including purchasers at judicial sales, shall not be entitled to occupancy of the unit until such time as all unpaid assessments due and owing by the former unit owner have been paid. The Association, acting through the Board of Administration, shall have the right to assign its claim and lien rights for the recovery of any unpaid assessment to the Developer, or to any unit or group of unit owners, or to any third party.

E. Mortgages and Other Alienation of Units:

1. No unit owner may mortgage his unit or any interest therein without the approval of the Association, except to an institutional mortgagee and except on a sale of the unit, pursuant to the Declaration, where the seller takes back a purchase money mortgage. The approval of any other mortgage may be granted upon conditions determined by the Corporation, or may be arbitrarily withheld. This provision shall not be construed so as to prevent the Developer or Association from accepting a Purchase Money Mortgage as a part of the purchase price of a condominium unit.

2. No judicial sale of a unit or any interest therein shall be valid unless:

a. The sale is to a purchaser approved by the Association which approval shall be in recordable form, executed by two officers of the Association and delivered to the purchaser; or,

b. The sale is a result of a public sale with open bidding.

3. The foregoing provisions of this Article VII shall not apply to transfers by a unit owner to any member of his immediate family (viz., spouse, children or parents).

The phrase "sell, rent or lease", in addition to its general definition, shall be defined as including the transferring of a unit owner's interest by gift, devise or involuntary or judicial sale.

4. The liability of the unit owner under these covenants shall continue notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased, rented, or sublet said interest as provided herein. Every purchaser, tenant or lessee shall take subject to this Declaration and all Exhibits attached hereto, including the By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation of the Association, as well as the provisions of the Condominium Act.

5. Special Provisions re Sale, Leasing, Mortgaging or Other Alienation by Certain Mortgagees and Developer and the Management Firm.

a. An institutional first mortgagee holding a mortgage on a Condominium Unit, upon becoming the owner of a Condominium Unit through foreclosure, or by Deed in lieu of foreclosure, or whomever shall become the acquirer of title at the foreclosure sale of an institutional first mortgage or the lien for common expenses, shall have the unqualified right to sell, lease or otherwise transfer said unit, including the fee ownership thereof, and/or to mortgage said parcel without prior offer to the Board of Administration of the Association and without the prior approval of the said Board of Administration.

b. The provisions of this Article VII, Section E, 1 through 4 & F, shall be inapplicable to the Developer, and any other person who, together with the Developer, owns a Condominium Unit nor shall the provisions of this Article apply to unit owners who have purchased more than one apartment unit from the Developer. The said Developer is irrevocably empowered to sell, lease, rent and/or mortgage Condominium Parcels or Units, and portions thereof, to any purchaser, lessee or mortgagee approved by them.

F. OFFER TO SELL OR LEASE:

1. Should the unit owner wish to sell, lease or rent his apartment unit (which means the unit, together with the undivided share in the common elements, and the right to use limited common elements, if applicable), he shall, before making or accepting any offer to sell, purchase, lease or rent said condominium unit, deliver to the Board of Administration, at the office of the Association, a written notice of his intent to sell, lease or rent, which notice shall contain the terms of the offer he has received, which he wishes to accept, or the terms of the offer he is prepared to make, and the name and address of the prospective purchaser or tenant. The Board of Administration, within fifteen (15) days after receiving such notice, shall either consent to the transaction specified in said notice, or by written notice to be delivered to the unit owner's unit, designate that the Association, one or more persons then condominium unit owners, or any other person or persons satisfactory to the Board of Administration who is willing to purchase, lease or rent upon the same terms as those specified in the unit owner's notice. Thereupon, the unit owner shall either accept such offer or withdraw and/or reject the offer specified in his notice to the Board of Administration. The stated designee of the Board of Administration shall have fifteen (15) days to close from the date of the notice designating such person sent by the Board of Administration upon the same terms specified in the unit owner's notice. Failure of the Board of Administration to designate such person or persons within said fifteen day period, or failure of such person or persons to close within said second fifteen day period, shall be deemed consent by the Board of Administration to the transaction specified in the unit owner's notice, and the unit owner shall be free to make or accept the offer specified in his notice, and may sell, lease or rent said interest pursuant thereto to the prospective purchaser or tenant named therein within forty-five (45) days after his original notice was given.

In the case of a sale of the condominium unit, the Board of Administration shall give to the condominium unitowner an instrument in recordable form showing the consent of the Board of Administration of the Association to the transfer of ownership in the unit. The unit owner shall have no right to sell, lease or rent his interest, or any part thereof, except as expressly provided for herein. The sub-leasing or sub-renting of said interest shall be subject to the same limitations as are applicable to the leasing or renting thereof, except that the Association shall approve of the prospective tenant. No individual rooms may be rented and no transient tenants may be accommodated. The liability of the unit owner under these covenants shall continue notwithstanding the fact that he may have leased or rented said interest as provided herein. Every purchaser, tenant or lessee shall take, subject to this Declaration and the By-Laws of the Corporation, and the provisions of the Condominium Act.

Any attempt to sell or rent a condominium unit, without compliance with the provisions of this Article shall be deemed a breach of this Declaration and shall wholly be null and void, and shall confer no title or interest whatsoever upon the intended purchaser, tenant or lessee.

The unit owner seeking approval of a transfer, lease, sale or sublease of a condominium unit shall pay for the expenditures reasonably incurred for the approval of such transaction which expense shall not exceed $50.00. No charge shall be made in connection with an extension or renewal of a lease.

In the event the Association shall either (a) fail to give a recordable consent to a unit owner in compliance with the terms of this Article VII; or (b) fails to designate either the Association or the person willing to lease, purchase or rent the condominium unit upon the same terms as those specified in the unit owner's notice pursuant to this Article VII; or (c) the failure of the Association or designee to close as set forth in this Article VII, then the unit owner shall be entitled to file an Affidavit among the Public Records of Dade County, Florida, attesting to his compliance with this Article VII, and such Affidavit shall be conclusive proof of the Association's consent.

G. MORTGAGED UNITS:

Should any condominium unit or parcel at any time become subject to an institutional mortgage given as security, the holder thereof, upon becoming the owner of such interest through whatever means, shall have the unqualified right to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of said unit or parcel, including the fee ownership thereof, without offer to the Board of Administration, notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraphs "E" and "F" above, provided, however, that in all other respects, the provisions of the Condominium Act shall be applicable thereto; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to allow or cause a severance from the condominium unit of the share of the common elements or other appurtenances of said unit.

All provisions of a real property mortgage in favor of an institutional mortgagee shall take precedence over the provisions of this Declaration, particularly in terms of right to receive insurance proceeds and right to approve of companies on which insurance is written, as well as the Condominium Act requirements concerning the non-effect of prior assessments in the event of foreclosure by said institutional mortgagee.

II. DEVELOPER'S UNITS AND PRIVILEGES:

The provisions of Paragraphs "E" and "F" of this Article shall not be applicable to the Developer, its successors or assigns, or any unit owners who have purchased more than one apartment unit from the Developer, who are irrevocably empowered to sell, lease, rent or mortgage condominium units to any purchaser, tenant or mortgagee approved by them. The said Developer shall have the right to transact on the condominium common elements any business necessary to consummate sales of units, including but not limited to, the right to maintain models, have signs, employees in the offices, use the common elements, to show condominium units, and to keep a full time sales staff. The Developer shall also have the right to use portions of the condominium property for parking for prospective purchasers and such other parties as Developer determines. Sales office, signs and items pertaining to sales shall not be considered common elements, and shall remain the property of the Developer. If the Developer retains said parcels, it may rent them on any basis notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained in this Declaration of Condominium.

The Developer's liability for common expenses will be limited to (and Developer will pay) a proportionate share of the "actual current expenses" of the Condominium Association on all of the Units owned by the Developer, said proportionate share to be the percentage of the Common Expenses for which all such units are responsible, as reflected on EXHIBIT "C". "Actual current expenses" shall mean and include only those expenses paid for by the Condominium Association each month for services, materials or other items actually consumed or utilized during the month preceding or following the month within which payment is made therefore, plus a pro-rata share of a reasonable reserve for annual taxes and insurance premiums. "Actual current expenses" will not include any other expenses or expenditures. Such excluded items specifically include but are not limited to any prepayments or expenses or reserves for capital improvements or betterments. Developer will be billed and will pay for its share of common expenses monthly, in arrears. This limitation upon payment by the Developer will terminate not later than the first day of the fourth calendar month following the month in which the closing of the purchase and sale of the first condominium unit occurs to a Unit Owner who is not the Developer, the nominee of the Developer, or a substitute or alternative Developer, provided, however, that in no event shall the Developer be obligated to pay an amount greater than its proportionate share of the common expenses incurred during said period.

I. TRANSFER OF RIGHTS.

The rights reserved in this Article and in this Declaration of Condominium and exhibits attached hereto may be assigned or transferred by Developer in whole or in part upon written instrument in recordable form, which instrument shall set forth therein the specific Developer's right or rights being assigned or transferred. The assignee of such right or rights shall have a like power of assignment and transfer, which, however, must be accomplished in the same manner as hereinabove set forth.

J. OCCUPANCY AND USE:

In order to provide for a congenial and compatible community and to preserve the value of the condominium property and the individual units, the use of the condominium property shall be restricted to and be in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The unit owner or owners of an apartment unit shall occupy and use his condominium parcel as a private dwelling for himself and members of his family and social guests and for no other purposes.

In the event a unit owner is a corporation, the unit shall be occupied and used by those stockholders, officers and directors of the corporation as may have been approved by the Developer and for those units already sold by the Developer, after unit owners other than the Developer are entitled to elect a majority of the Board of Administration, by the Board of Administration of the Condominium Association.

The Developer, its assigns or designees, may waive any provision or requirement of Article VII, J., 1., however, such waiver shall not be interpreted or construed as a general waiver of the provisions and restrictions contained in said Article. No owner of any unit shall permit use of the same for transient or hotel purposes, except that any unit owned or controlled by the Developer, or its successors or designees, may be used by the Developer as a guest apartment, and if any Owner of a unit has leased the same to the Developer or its successors, or designees, then such unit while leased unto the Developer, its successors or designees, may similarly be used as a guest apartment.

2. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of any unit, the condominium property or of the Common Elements or of any part thereof, and all laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed.

3. The unit owner shall not permit or suffer anything to be done or kept in his unit which will increase the rate of insurance on the condominium property, or which will obstruct or interfere with the rights of other unit owners or annoy them by unreasonable noises or otherwise, nor shall the unit owner commit or permit any nuisance, immoral or illegal act in or about the condominium property.

4. A unit owner may if said pet is owned by the unit owner on the date he closes with the Developer, keep one domestic pet or animal on the condominium property, so long as such domestic pet or animal does not, when fully grown weigh more than fifteen (15) pounds, constitute a nuisance and unreasonably interfere with the quiet enjoyment of the premises by the other Condominium unit owners and, provided further, that such domestic pets or animals are maintained pursuant to the rules and regulations promulgated by the Board of Administration of the Condominium Association. Should a unit owner desire to keep more than one domestic pet or animal on the Condominium property, then such unit owner must first obtain the written approval of the Board of Administration of the Condominium Association.

Any unit owner who maintains a pet in his unit shall be subject to the following:

- a. The pet will not be allowed out of the condominium unit or building unless it is in the custody of the owner and on a leash not to exceed four (4) feet in length, or carried.
- b. The pet will be carried or held on a short leash not to exceed one (1) foot when riding the elevator.
- c. The pet will be walked only off the premises of the building and the pet will be curbed only in the street gutter.
- d. The unit owner shall be liable for any damage to the building, grounds, flooring, walls, trim, finish, tiles, carpeting, stairs, etc., caused by the unit owner's pet, and the unit owner agrees to pay all costs involved in restoring any damage to the original new condition.
- e. The unit owner shall be financially responsible for any personal injury or personal property damage caused to any other unit owner, occupant, guest or employee of the building or to any member of the public, by the owner's pet.

OFF

f. The unit owner shall put the pet out to board at its own expense should it be necessary because of any noise, barking or damage to the building and/or grounds or any reasonable complaints from other owners in the building.

5. No clothesline or similar devices shall be allowed on any portion of the condominium property.

6. The unit owner shall not cause anything to be affixed or attached to, hung, displayed or placed on the exterior walls, doors, balconies, or windows of the condominium unit except with the prior written consent of the Board of Administration of the Association, and further, when approved, subject to the rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Administration. All window and exterior glass door covering shall be in the color specified by the Association.

7. No person shall use the common elements, or any part thereof, or a Condominium unit, or the Condominium property, or any part thereof, in any manner contrary to or not in accordance with such Rules and Regulations pertaining thereto, as from time to time promulgated by the Association.

8. In order to preserve the residential character of the Condominium, no business, trade or profession of any type whatsoever shall be conducted from within any unit in the Condominium (other than units owned by the Developer), without the prior written consent of the Association. The Association shall possess the additional authority to promulgate rules and regulations governing the manner, method and to what degree said uses may be permitted, and further, shall have the power to revoke the granting of such permitted uses, when in the Association's sole discretion the use in question has become excessive and/or violates the residential character of the Condominium.

9. No owner shall cause the balcony abutting his unit to be enclosed, increased in size, alter the configuration thereof, or cause improvements or changes to any private balcony on the exterior of the Condominium, including but not limited to, painting or other extensive decoration of any aesthetic nature, the installation of electrical wiring, television antenna machines or air conditioning units, which may protrude through the walls or roof of the condominium property or in any manner change the appearance of any portion of the building without obtaining the prior written consent of the Association.

10. No unit owner shall install exterior storm doors or shutters without the prior consent of the Association.

This clause is inserted in this Declaration of Condominium as a covenant for the benefit of such institutional mortgagee and cannot be amended or changed without said mortgagee's prior written consent.

2. Coverage:

(a) Liability Insurance: The Board of Administration of the Association, shall obtain public liability and property damage insurance covering all of the common elements of the Condominium, and insuring the Association, the unit owners and the Board of Administration of the Association may determine from time to time, provided that the minimum amount of coverage shall be Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($500,000.00) for any one person, One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) for any single occurrence, Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for property damage. (b) Casualty: All buildings and improvements upon the land including the common areas, and all personal property included in the Condominium Property shall be insured in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Administration of the Association. Such coverage shall afford protection against: (i) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement; (ii) Flood; (iii) such other risk as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location, and use, including but not limited to, vandalism and malicious mischief.

(c) Workmen's Compensation: As shall be required to meet the requirements of the law.

(d) Each individual unit owner shall be responsible for the purchasing of liability insurance for accidents occurring in his own unit. The owner of a unit shall have no personal liability for any damages caused by the Corporation. A unit owner shall be liable for injuries or damages resulting from an accident in his own unit to the same extent and degree that the owner of a house would be liable for an accident occurring within the house.

3. Loss Payable to Insurance Trustee:

All casualty insurance policies purchased by the Association hereunder shall provide that all proceeds covering casualty losses shall be paid to any bank or trust company in Dade County or Broward County, as Trustee, which bank or trust company shall have trust powers and such other powers as may be designated by the Board of Administration of the Association, and approved by the institutional mortgagee having the highest dollar indebtedness on units in the condominium property. Said Trustee is herein referred to as the "Insurance Trustee". The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for the payment of premiums or the sufficiency of premiums, nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The Insurance Trustee shall be responsible only for monies which come into its possession, and only for its willful misconduct, bad faith or gross negligence. The duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid to it, and to hold the same in trust pursuant to the terms of the Trust Agreement.

between the Association and the Insurance Trustee, which shall not be inconsistent with any of the provisions herein.

4. Payment of Premiums, Trustee's Expenses and Collection:

The Board of Administration, shall collect and pay the premium for all insurance and all fees and expenses of the Insurance Trustee as part of the common expenses for which assessments are levied.

5. Loss Within a Single Unit:

If loss shall occur within a single unit or units without damage to the common elements and/or the party wall between units, the provisions of this Article VII, Section K, Paragraph 6, shall apply.

6. Determination of Damage and Use of Proceeds:

Where a loss or damage occurs within a unit or units, or to the common elements, or to any unit or units and the common elements, but said loss is less than "very substantial" (as such term is hereinafter defined), it shall be obligatory upon the Association and the unit owners to repair, restore and rebuild the damage caused by said loss.

(a) Immediately after a casualty causing damage to any part of the Condominium Property, the Board of Administration shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost necessary to repair and replace the damaged property to a condition as good as the condition that existed prior to the casualty loss; provided, however, that if a casualty causing damage is limited to a single unit, then it shall be the responsibility of that unit owner to obtain estimates of the cost of replacement as aforesaid. If the net proceeds of insurance are insufficient to pay the estimated cost of reconstruction and repair, the Board of Administration shall promptly, upon determination of said deficiency, levy a special assessment against all unit owners for that portion of the deficiency related to individual damaged units; provided, however, that if, in the opinion of the Board of Administration, it is impossible to accurately and adequately determine the portion of the deficiency relating to individual damaged units, the Board of Administration shall levy the special assessment for the total deficiency against each of the unit owners, according to the percentages set forth in Article III of this Declaration.

(b) Unless there occurs substantial damage to or destruction of all or a substantial portion of the Condominium Property, and the unit owners elect not to rebuild and repair, as provided in Paragraph 7 below of this Article, the Insurance Trustee shall use the net proceeds and the funds collected by the Board of Administration from the assessments hereinabove set forth to repair and replace any damage or destruction of property, and shall pay any balance remaining to the unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, and the proceeds of insurance and the funds collected by the Board of Administration from the assessments as hereinabove provided shall be held by the Insurance Trustee in trust for the uses and purposes herein provided.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, if the damage or loss is limited to the common elements with no or minimum damage or loss to any individual units, and if such damage or loss to the common elements is less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), the insurance proceeds shall be endorsed by the Insurance Trustee over to the Association, which shall promptly contract for the repair and restoration of the damage.

7. Very Substantial Damage:

As used in this Declaration, and in any other connection or context dealing with this Condominium, the term "very substantial damage" to or destruction of all or a substantial portion of the Condominium property shall mean that three-fourths (3/4ths) or more of the total of the apartment units in the Condominium are rendered untenable by casualty loss; or damage or loss whereby 75% or more of the total amount of insurance coverage placed pursuant to Article VII, K, 2, becomes payable. Should there occur "very substantial damage" to or destruction of all or a substantial part of the Condominium Property, the condominium project shall not be reconstructed, unless three-fourths (3/4ths) of the apartment condominium unit owners agree thereto, in writing, within sixty (60) days after the casualty loss or damage occurs.

It is understood and agreed that in the event a mortgage should require the payment of the proceeds to it, that sum shall be paid to the said mortgagee, and the unit owners shall then be obligated to deposit the funds necessary for his unit towards his share of the rebuilding costs. In the event such reconstruction is not approved as aforesaid, the Insurance Trustee is authorized to pay proceeds of the insurance to the unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, and the Condominium Property shall be removed from the provisions of the Condominium Act with the results provided for by the Condominium Act. The determination not to reconstruct after casualty shall be evidenced by a certificate, signed by one of the officers of the Association, stating that the said sixty-day period has elapsed, and that the Association has not received the necessary writings from three-fourths (3/4ths) of the condominium unit owners. In the event any dispute shall arise as to whether or not "very substantial damage" has occurred, it is agreed that such a finding made by the Board of Administration of the Association, shall be binding upon all unit owners.

8. Association As Agent:

The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed Agent for each unit owner to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Corporation.

L. ALTERATIONS:

There shall be no material structural additions or alterations to the unit or limited common elements, enclosing of balconies, or substantial additions to the common elements, except as the same are authorized by the Board of Administration, and as hereinafter provided. In the event such changes are authorized by the Board of Administration, they must also be ratified by the affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners. No unit owner shall block, hamper or otherwise interfere with the common elements of the property or the operation thereof.

1. Structural alterations within a unit may be made with the prior written consent of the Association, and any first mortgagee holding a mortgage on the unit.

2. The unit owner shall make no alterations, decoration, door or color changes, repair, replacement or change of the common elements, limited common elements, or to any outside or exterior portion of the unit, whether a unit or part of the limited common elements or common elements without the prior written consent of Association. Unit owners may use such contractor or subcontractor as approved by the Board of Administration and said parties shall comply with all Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board of Administration. The unit owner shall be liable for all damages to another unit, the common elements or the Condominium Property caused by the unit owner's contractor, subcontractor or employee, whether said damages are caused by negligence, accident or otherwise.

3. The unit owner shall allow the Board of Administration or the agents or employees of the Association, to enter into his unit for the purpose of maintenance, inspection, repair, replacement of the improvements within the units, limited common elements or the common elements, or to determine in case of emergency, circumstances threatening units, limited common elements or the common elements, or to determine compliance with the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws of the Association.

4. In the event the owner of a unit fails to maintain said unit and limited common elements, as required herein, or makes any alterations or additions without the required written consent, or otherwise violates or threatens to violate the provisions hereof, the Association, shall have the right to proceed in a Court of equity for an injunction to seek compliance with the provisions hereof. In lieu thereof and in addition thereto, the Association, shall have the right to levy an assessment against the owner of a unit, and the unit, for such necessary sums to remove any unauthorized addition or alteration, and to restore the property to good condition and repair. Said assessment shall have the same force and effect as all other special assessments. The Association, shall have the further right to have its employees or agents, or any subcontractors appointed by it, enter a unit, at all reasonable times to do such work as is deemed necessary by the Association, to enforce compliance with the provisions thereof.

5. The Association shall determine the exterior color schemes of the units and all exteriors, and shall be responsible for the maintenance thereof, and no owner shall paint an exterior wall, door, window, or any exterior surface, or replace anything thereon or affix thereto, without the written consent of the Association.

M. OWNERS:

1. No owner of a "Condominium Parcel" may exempt himself from liability for his contribution towards the common expenses by waiver of the use and enjoyment of any of the "common elements" or by the abandonment of his "Condominium Unit".

2. The owners of each and every "Condominium Parcel" shall return the same for the purpose of ad valorem taxes with the Tax Assessor, governmental officer or authority having jurisdiction over the same.

For the purposes of ad valorem taxation, the interest of the owner of a "Condominium Parcel" in his "Condominium Unit", and in the "common elements" shall be considered as a unit. The value of said unit shall be equal to the percentage of undivided shares in the common elements of the entire Condominium, including land and improvements as have been assigned to said unit in Article III of this Enabling Declaration.

The percentage assigned above shall be binding upon all owners for all purposes; including ad valorem taxation, at all times in the future, and may not be amended or changed.

N. TERMINATION:

The provisions for termination set forth in this Declaration shall be in addition to the provisions for voluntary termination, as provided for by Section 718.117 of the Condominium Act.

O. SEVERABILITY:

If any provision of this Declaration, or of the By-Laws attached hereto, or the Condominium Act, is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Declaration, or of the By-Laws attached hereto, or of the Condominium Act, shall not be affected thereby.

P. TITLES:

Article and paragraph titles inserted throughout this Declaration are intended only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or in any way affect this Declaration.

Q. NOTICES:

VIIIPARKING

A. The common elements of the condominium property include those areas designated on the Plot Plan and Survey, attached hereto as Exhibit "B", as parking areas. The parking areas are to be used exclusively for the parking of automobiles and no trucks, trailers, campers, boats, etc., may be parked or stored in said areas.

The Developer shall have the right to assign to any apartment condominium unit, as an incident of ownership, one parking space, at no charge, subject, however, to the restrictions provided in this Declaration and the rules and regulations of the Condominium Association as promulgated from time to time. On closing, if a unit owner is entitled to an assigned parking space, the Developer shall give the purchaser a written assignment of parking space, which shall not be in recordable form. Once said parking space is assigned by the Developer, then the said parking space shall be deemed as a limited common element, appurtenant to said condominium unit to which it was assigned, and such parking space may not thereafter be separately conveyed, hypothecated, encumbered or otherwise dealt with and the title thereto shall pass only with title to the unit to which it is appurtenant. An executed copy of the instrument assigning the parking space shall be maintained by the Association.

IXTERMINATION

This Condominium may be voluntarily terminated, in the manner provided for in Section 718.117 of the Condominium Act, at any time. In addition thereto, when there has been "very substantial damage" as defined in Article VII, Section K, Paragraph 7 above, this Condominium shall be subject to termination as provided herein in Article VII. In addition thereof, if the proposed voluntary termination is submitted to a meeting of the membership of the Association, pursuant to notice, and is approved in writing within sixty (60) days of said meeting by three-fourths (3/4ths) of the total vote of the Condominium unit owners of the Association, and by all institutional mortgagees holding outstanding mortgages on condominium units in this condominium, then the Association and the approving owners, if they desire, shall have an option to purchase all of the parcels of the other owners, within a period expiring one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of such meeting. Such approvals shall be irrevocable until the expiration of the option and if the option is exercised, the approvals shall be irrevocable. The option shall be exercised upon the following terms:

A. Exercise of Option: An Agreement to Purchase, executed by the Association and/or the record owners of the parcels who will participate in the purchase, shall be delivered by personal delivery or mailed by certified or registered mail, to each of the record owners of the parcels to be purchased, and such delivery shall be deemed the exercise of the option. The Agreement shall indicate which parcels will be purchased by each participating owner and/or the Association, and shall require the purchase of all parcels owned by owners not approving the termination, but the Agreement shall effect a separate contract between the seller and his purchaser.

B. Price: The sale price for each apartment shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such Agreement and, in the absence of agreement as to price, it shall be determined by appraisers appointed by the Senior Judge of the Circuit Court in and for Dade County, Florida, on the petition of the seller. The expenses of appraisal shall be paid by the purchaser.

C. Payment: The purchase price shall be paid in cash.

D. Closing: The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days.

XMISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. All provisions of this Declaration and Exhibits attached hereto, and Amendments thereof, shall be construed as covenants running with the land, and of every part thereof and therein, including, but not limited to, every unit and the appurtenances thereto, and every unit owner, and claimant of the property, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, and his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, shall be bound by all of the provisions of said Declaration and Exhibits annexed hereto and any amendments thereof.

B. Nothing hereinabove set forth in this Declaration shall be construed as prohibiting the Developer or the Board of Administration of the Association, from authorizing the removal or removing of any party wall between any units in order that the said units might be used together as one integral unit. In each event, all assessments, voting rights, and the share of the common elements shall be calculated as if such units were as originally designated on the Exhibits attached to this Declaration, notwithstanding the fact that several units are used as one, to the intent and purpose that the unit owner of such combined units shall be treated as the unit owner of as many units as have been so combined.

BY-LAWSOFDELKUS TOWERS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATIONA CondominiumARTICLE IGeneral

Section 1. The Name. The name of the Corporation shall be DELKUS TOWERS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, which is a corporation not for profit organized for the purpose of managing, operating and administering the Condominium established on the land described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto.

Section 2. The Principal Office. The principal office of the Corporation shall be 6725 Harding Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida 33141, or at such other place as may be subsequently designated by the Board of Administration.

Section 3. Definitions. As used herein, the term "Corporation" shall be the equivalent of "association" as defined in the Condominium Declaration, and the words "property", "unit owner" and "condominium" are defined as set forth in the Condominium Declaration, etc., of the Corporation to which these By-Laws are attached. The "Board of Directors" may also be referred to as the "Board of Administration" and such designation shall be interchangeable.

ARTICLE IIDirectors

Section 1. Number and Term. The number of Directors which shall constitute the whole Board of Administration shall be not less than five (5) persons nor more than nine (9) persons as is determined from time to time by the members. All directors shall be members of the Association and owners of apartment condominium units; provided, however that until one of the events in Article II, Section 4 of these By-Laws first occurs, all directors shall be designated by the Developer and need not be members. All officers shall be deemed to be members of the Association so as to qualify as directors herein. No more than one owner of one condominium apartment unit may be a director at any one time.

The Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members and each Director shall be elected to serve for the term of one (1) year or until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify. Until succeeded by Directors elected at the first annual meeting of the members, Directors need not be members; election shall be by plurality of the vote of the apartment condominium unit owners entitled to vote. The first Board of Directors shall have three members.

Section 2. Removal. Except for the first Board of Directors as provided for herein, a Director elected or appointed as provided in the Declaration may be removed from office upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members for any reason deemed by the members to be detrimental to the best interests of the Association; provided, further before any director is removed from office, he shall be notified in writing that a motion to remove him will be made prior to the meeting at which said motion is made, and such Director shall be given an opportunity to be heard at such meeting, should he be present, prior to the vote on his removal. A Director elected or appointed by the Developer may only be removed by the Developer who shall designate the successor Director.

Section 3. Vacancy and Replacement. If the office of any Director or Directors becomes vacant by reason of death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or otherwise, a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum at a special meeting of Directors duly called for this purpose, shall choose a successor or successors who shall hold office for the unexpired term in respect to which vacancy occurred.

Section 4. First Board of Administrators. The first Board of Administrators shall consist of:

who shall hold office and exercise all powers of the Board of Directors until the first membership meeting as set forth in Article V of these By-Laws; provided any or all of said Directors shall be subject to replacement in the event of resignation or death as above provided, except as follows:

At such time as unit owners other than the Developer own fifteen (15%) percent or more of the condominium units that will be operated by the Condominium Association, the unit owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect not less than one-third (1/3rd) of the members of the Board of Administration of the Association. Unit owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the Board of Administration upon the earliest occurrence of any of the following:

A. Three (3) years after sales by the Developer have been closed on fifty (50%) percent of the condominium units that will be operated by the Association; or

B. Three (3) months after sales have been closed by the Developer on ninety (90%) percent of the units that will be operated by the Association; or

C. When all of the units that will be operated by the Association have been completed and some of them have been sold and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business, whichever occurs first.

The Developer shall be entitled to elect not less than one (1) member of the Board of Administration as long as it holds for sale in the ordinary course of business, at least five (5%) percent of the units in the condominium operated by the Association.

Section 5. Powers. The property and business of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Administration which may exercise all corporate powers not specifically prohibited by statute or the Certificate of Incorporation, and all powers directed or required to be exercised or done by the members pursuant to these By-Laws. These powers shall specifically include, but not be limited to, the following:

A. To levy upon the members monthly and other assessments as are necessary for anticipated current operating expenses and for all of those unpaid operating expenses periodically incurred and payable in advance. The Board of Administration may increase the monthly assessments or vote a special assessment in excess of that amount, if required, to meet any necessary additional expenses, but said increase can only be made in the proportion established in Article III, Section 8 of the Declaration of Condominium.

B. To use and to expend the assessments collected to maintain, care for and preserve the condominium units, the common elements, the limited common elements and the condominium property (other than the interiors of the condominium units which are to be maintained, cared for and preserved by the individual condominium unit owners.)

C. To pay taxes and assessments levied and assessed against any real property the corporation might own and to pay for such equipment and tools, supplies and other personal property purchased for use in such maintenance care and preservation.

D. To enter into and upon the condominium units when necessary and at as little convenience to the owner as possible in connection with such maintenance, care and preservation. For the purpose of preservation, care and restoration of condominium property, each owner of a condominium unit grants a perpetual easement in the event of an emergency to the then existing Board of Administration or its duly authorized agents to enter into his condominium unit at any reasonable time (or at any unreasonable time if the necessities of the situation should require.)

E. To repair and replace common element and limited common element facilities, machinery and equipment.

F. To insure and keep insured the owners against loss from public liability and to carry such other insurance as the Board of Administration may deem advisable; and in the event of damage or destruction of property, real or personal, covered by such insurance, to use the proceeds for repairs and replacement, all in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium.

G. To collect delinquent assessments by suit or otherwise, to abate nuisances and to enjoin or seek damages from unit owners for violations of the Declaration of Condominium, these By-Laws or Rules and Regulations adopted by the Board of Administration.

H. To employ such personnel, make such purchases and enter into such contracts as may be necessary or desirable in carrying out the operation and management of the condominium.

I. To make, amend and repeal Rules and Regulations governing the operating, maintenance and management of the condominium, including without limitation, the use and occupancy of the units by the members, the use of the common elements.

Section 6. Compensation. Directors and officers shall serve without compensation.

Section 7. Meetings.

A. The first meeting of each Board newly elected by the members shall be held immediately upon adjournment of the meeting at which they were elected, provided a quorum shall then be present, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable. The annual meeting of the Board of Administration shall be held at the same place as the general members' meeting and immediately after the adjournment of same.

B. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held quarterly at such time and place as the Board shall fix from time to time.

C. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the president on five (5) days notice to each director, either personally or by mail or telegram. Special meetings shall be called by the president or secretary in a like manner and on like notice on the written request of three (3) directors.

D. Meetings of the Board of Administration shall be open to all unit owners. Notice of all meetings shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the condominium property at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of each scheduled meeting, to the attention of all unit owners. Except, however, in case of an emergency, a meeting of the Board of Administration may be held without notice.

E. At all meetings of the Board, a majority of the directors shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Administration, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by Statute, by the Declaration of Condominium or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these By-Laws. If a quorum shall not be present in any meeting of directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 8. Annual Statement. The Board shall present at the annual meeting of members, and when called for by a vote of the members at any special meeting of the members, a full and clear statement of the business and condition of the Corporation.

The Association shall maintain accounting records according to good accounting practices which shall be open to inspection by unit owners or their authorized representatives at reasonable times, and written summaries of which shall be supplied at least annually to unit owners or their authorized representatives. Such records shall include:

A. A record of all receipts and expenditures.

The Board of Administration may also choose one or more additional vice presidents, assistant secretaries, assistant treasurers or other officers. ARTICLE IVMembership and Voting Provisions

Section 1. Membership. Membership in the Association shall be limited to owners of the Condominium units in this Condominium. Transfer of unit ownership, either voluntary or by operation of law, shall terminate membership in the Association, and said membership is to become vested in the transferee. If unit ownership is vested in more than one person, then all of the persons so owning said unit shall be members eligible to hold office, attend meetings, etc.; but as hereinafter indicated, the vote of a unit owned by a corporation, said corporation may designate an individual officer or employee of the corporation as its "voting member."

Section 2. Voting.

A. The owner(s) of each residential apartment Condominium unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote, except as provided in Article V, Section 3 of these By-Laws. If a Condominium unit owner owns more than one unit, he shall be entitled to vote for each unit owned except where said units have been combined to a single unit pursuant to the Declaration of Condominium, then such unit owners shall have a number of votes equal to the number of units so combined. The vote of a Condominium unit shall not be divisible.

B. A majority of the unit owners' total votes shall decide any question unless the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws or Articles of Incorporation of the Association provides otherwise.

Section 3. Quorum. Unless otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the unit owners entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and signed by the person entitled to vote (as set forth below in Section 5), and shall be filed with the Secretary prior to the meeting in which they are to be used, and shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated therein. Proxies shall also designate the person to vote the proxy and such person must be a "voting member" as such term is hereinafter defined. Where a unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, and if they have not designated one of them as a voting member, a proxy must be signed by both husband and wife where a third person is designated.

Section 5. Designation of Voting Member. If a Condominium unit is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the recorded title to the unit. If a Condominium unit is owned by more than one person, the person entitled to cast the vote for the unit shall be designated in a certificate signed by all of the record owners of the unit, and filed with the Secretary of the Association. If a Condominium unit is owned by a corporation, the officer or employees thereof entitled to cast the vote of the unit for the corporation shall be designated in a certificate for this purpose, signed by the president or vice president, attested to by the secretary or assistant secretary of the corporation, and filed with the Secretary of the Condominium Association. The person designated in such certificate who is entitled to cast the vote for a unit shall be known as the "voting member." If such a certificate is not on file with the Secretary of the Association for a unit owned by more than one person or by a corporation, the vote of the unit concerned shall not be considered in determining the requirement for a quorum, or for any purpose requiring the approval of a person entitled to cast the vote for the unit, except if said unit is owned by a husband and wife. Such certificates shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent certificate, or until a change in the ownership of the unit concerned. If a condominium unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, the following three provisions are applicable thereto:

A. They may, but they shall not be required to, designate a voting member.

B. If they do not designate a voting member, and if both are present at a meeting and are unable to concur in their decision upon any subject requiring a vote, they shall lose their right to vote on that subject at that meeting. (As previously provided, the vote of a unit is not divisible.)

C. Where they do not designate a voting member, and only one is present at a meeting, the person present may cast the unit vote individually and without establishing the concurrence of the absent person.

ARTICLE V

Meetings of Membership

Section 1. Place. All meetings of the Corporation membership shall be held at the office of the Corporation or may be held at such place and time as shall be stated in the notice thereof.

Section 2. Annual Meeting.

A. The first annual meeting shall occur on the first day of the month following the month in which unit owners, other than the Developer, are entitled to elect a majority of the members of the Board of Administration as provided for in Article II, Section 4 of these By-Laws, or such earlier date as designated by the Developer.

B. Regular annual meetings, subsequent to the first annual meeting, shall be held on the same day of the same month of each year as the first annual meeting.

C. All annual meetings shall be held at such hour as the Board of Administration may determine.

D. At the annual meeting, the members shall elect, by plurality vote, a Board of Administration, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

E. At least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting, written notice of the annual meeting shall be served upon or mailed via certified mail to each member entitled to vote thereat, at such address as appears on the books of the Corporation. Notice of the annual meeting shall be posted at a conspicuous place on the Condominium Property at least fourteen (14) days prior to said meeting.

Section 3. Membership List. At least fourteen (14) days before every election of Directors, a complete list of the members entitled to vote as said election, arranged numerically by "condominium units", with the residence of each, shall be prepared by the Secretary. Such list shall be produced and kept for said fourteen (14) days and throughout the election at the principal office of the Corporation, and shall be open to examination by any member throughout such time. No member who is then more than thirty (30) days delinquent in the payment of any assessment shall be entitled to vote at any regular or special meeting.

Section 4. Special Meetings of Members.

A. Special meetings of the members, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation, may be called by the President and shall be called by the President or Secretary at the request, in writing, of not less than one-fourth (1/4th) of the membership entitled to vote. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting.

B. At least five (5) days before such meeting, written notice of a special meeting of members, stating the time, place and object thereof, shall be served upon or mailed, via regular mail, to each member entitled to vote thereat at such address as appears on the books of the Corporation.

C. Business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the objects stated in the notice thereof.

Section 5. Quorum. Fifty-one (51%) percent of the total number of members entitled to vote of the Corporation, present in person or represented by written proxy, shall be requisite to and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the members for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration of Condominium or by these By-Laws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the members, the members entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by written proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting until a quorum shall be present or represented. If, when the meeting has been resumed and a quorum is not present or represented by proxy, the members entitled to vote thereat may declare a quorum that shall constitute forty (40%) percent of the total number of members entitled to vote. If a quorum shall not be present or represented at the resumed meeting as provided herein, then the members entitled to vote thereat shall have the power to adjourn the meeting and declare that a quorum may be reduced by ten (10%) percent for each meeting until a quorum is present. Any business may be transacted at the resumed meeting that could have been transacted at the meeting as originally called.

Section 6. Vote Required to Transact Business. When a quorum is present at any meeting, the vote of a majority of the members entitled to vote thereat present in person or represented by written proxy shall decide any question brought before such meeting unless the question is one upon which, by express provision of the statutes or of the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration of Condominium or of these By-Laws, a different vote is required, in which case, express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

Section 7. Right to Vote. At any meeting of the members, every member having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person or by proxy. Such proxy shall only be valid for such meeting or adjournments thereof, must be in writing, signed by the member appointing the proxy and filed with the Secretary prior to the meeting for which the proxy is given.

Section 8. Waiver and Consent. Whenever the vote of members at a meeting is required or permitted by any provision of the statutes, of the Declaration of Condominium, of the Articles of Incorporation or of these By-Laws to be taken in connection with any action of the Corporation, the meeting and vote of members may be dispensed with if all the members who would have been entitled to vote upon the action if such meeting were held shall consent in writing to such action being taken.

Section 9. Rules of Procedure. Roberts Rules of Order (latest edition) shall govern the conduct of corporate proceedings when not in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws, statutes or Declaration of Condominium.

ARTICLE VI

Notices

Section 1. Definition. Whenever, under the provisions of the Statutes of the State of Florida, the Articles of Incorporation or of these By-Laws, or of the Declaration of Condominium, notice is required to be given to any director or member, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice, but such notice may be given in writing, by mail, by depositing the same in a post office or letter box, in a post-paid, sealed wrapper, addressed to such director or member at such address as appears on the books of the Corporation.

Section 2. Service of Notice Waiver. Whenever any such notice is required to be given, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed the equivalent therefor.

OFF REC 11031 PG 354

ARTICLE VIIFinances

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January in each year.

Section 2. Checks. All checks or drafts for money and notes of the Corporation shall be signed by any two of the following officers: President, Secretary or Treasurer, or by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the Board of Administration may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Assessments.

A. The Board of Administration of the Corporation shall, from time to time, at regular meetings or special meetings called for this purpose, fix and determine the sum or sums necessary and adequate for the continued operation of the Condominium. The Board shall determine the total amount required, including the operational items such as taxes on corporation property, insurance, repairs, maintenance, security, operating capital, reserve for deferred maintenance, other reserves and other operating expenses, and expenses designated as common expenses from time to time by the Board of Administration of the Association or under the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. The total annual requirements shall be assessed as a single sum against all condominium units and prorated to each of said condominium units. This ratio of assessment shall be in amounts as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium. Said assessments shall be payable monthly in advance as ordered by the Board of Administration.

Special assessments, should such be required, shall be levied and paid in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for regular assessments. The owner agrees to pay promptly when due the monthly and all special assessments assessed against his own condominium unit. Delinquent assessments will bear interest at the rate of 9% per annum. No member shall be personally liable for any debts of the Corporation whatsoever.

B. A copy of a proposed annual budget, except for the initial budget which is for a period of twelve (12) months, of common expenses shall be mailed, regular mail, to the unit owners, not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the Board of Administration at which the budget will be considered, together with a notice of that meeting. Such meeting shall be open to the unit owners.

(1) If the Board of Administration adopts a budget which requires an assessment against the unit owners, in any fiscal or calendar year, exceeding 115% of such assessments for the preceding year, then upon written application of no less than ten (10%) percent of the unit owners, a special meeting of the unit owners shall be held upon not less than ten (10) days written notice, mailed regular mail, to each unit owner, but within thirty (30) days of the delivery of such application to the Board of Administration or any member thereof. At such special meeting of the unit owners, the unit owners may:

(a) consider and enact a revision of the budget; and/or

(b) recall any and all members of the Board of Administration and elect their successors.

(c) The revision of the budget or the recall of any and all members of the Board of Administration shall require a vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3rds) of the whole number of votes of the unit owners.

C. The Board of Administration may, in the alternative to that set forth in this Article VII, Section 3B, propose a budget to the unit owners at a meeting of the members or by writing, and if such budget or proposed budget is approved by a majority of the unit owners present at such meeting, or by a majority of their whole number in writing, such budget shall not thereafter be re-examined by the unit owners in the manner set forth in this Article VII, Section 3B, nor shall the members of the Board of Administration be subject to recall under the terms of said section.

D. In determining whether assessments exceed 115% of similar assessments in prior years, there shall be excluded in the computation any provision for reasonable reserves made by the Board of Administration in respect of repair or replacement of the Condominium Property or in respect of anticipated expenses by the Condominium Association which are not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis, and there shall be excluded from such computation, assessment for betterments to be imposed by the Board of Administration. Provided, however, that so long as the Developer is in control of the Board of Administration, the Board shall not impose an assessment for a year greater than 115% of the prior fiscal or calendar year's assessment without approval of a majority of the residential unit owners.

E. All sums collected by the Association from assessments may be commingled as a single fund or divided into more than one fund, as determined by the Board of Directors of the Association.

Section 4. Accounts. There shall be established and maintained such bank account or accounts as the Board of Administration shall deem advisable, into which shall be deposited all monthly and special assessments as fixed and determined for all condominium units. Disbursements from said accounts shall be for the general needs of the Corporation, including but not limited to wages, repairs, betterments, maintenance and other operating expenses of the property of the Corporation.

Section 5. Condominium Expenses. The Condominium expenses for which the members shall be liable as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium shall be those costs and expenses deemed necessary or desirable by the Corporation for the operation and maintenance of the Condominium Property, other than maintenance of the interior of a unit and of such other items for whose maintenance and repair a unit owner is responsible although the same are located in the common elements. Such operating and maintenance expenses shall include, but not be limited to, maintenance of all lawns, shrubbery, landscaping, water and electricity for landscaping sprinkler systems, electricity for lighting common elements, painting the exterior of all buildings, maintenance and repair of roofs of all buildings, removal of garbage and trash.

Section 6. Annual Audit. An audit of the accounts of the Corporation shall be made annually by a certified public accountant and a copy of the report shall be furnished to each member not later than April 1st of the year following the year for which the report is made. The cost thereof shall be a common expense.

ARTICLE VIII

Seal

The seal of the Corporation shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its organization and the words "Not For Profit." Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed, reproduced or in any other form evidencing the intent of the signing officer or officers to have the effect of a corporate seal.

ARTICLE IX

Leasing and Subleasing

The primary object of the Corporation is to operate and maintain the property on a mutual and cooperative basis for the housing needs of its members, coupled with the right of occupancy. The right of occupancy, nevertheless, is a matter of discretionary decision by the Board of Administration and every lease or sublease of a Condominium unit is subject to the approval of the Board of Administration, as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium. The Board of Administration shall have the right to require that a uniform form of lease shall be used and that leases shall be for periods of not less than six months. The Association may charge a fee for the actual expenses incurred in approving the sale or lease of a condominium unit, which in no event shall exceed $50.00. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary, no unit owner may lease his unit and no lessee may sublease more than one time in any calendar year.

ARTICLE X

Default

In the event an owner of a condominium parcel does not pay any sums, charges or assessments required to be paid by the Corporation within thirty (30) days from the due date, the Corporation through its Board of Directors or manager, acting in behalf of the Corporation, may, pursuant to Section 718.116(4) and (5) foreclose the lien encumbering the condominium parcel created by the nonpayment of the required monies. In said foreclosure action, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver as a matter of strict right to the Corporation and without reference to the adequacy or inadequacy of the owner or any party defendant to such suit. To further secure payment of this indebtedness, the condominium parcel owner by virtue of this acceptance of the conveyance of the condominium parcel to him does hereby sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the Corporation all of the rents, issues and profits of his condominium parcel, and this assignment shall become operative upon any default being made by said condominium parcel owner hereunder, and shall remain in full force and effect so long as any default continues to exist hereunder, and the Corporation shall have the right to enter upon the premises and collect the same directly from the occupants.

If the Corporation becomes the owner of the condominium parcel in question, it shall offer said parcel for sale, and whenever such a sale is consummated it shall, from the proceeds received from said sale, deduct all sums of money due it for monthly assessments and charges, all costs incurred in the bringing of the lawsuit in question, including reasonable attorneys' fees and any and all expenses incurred in the resale of the condominium parcel in question, which shall include but not be limited to advertising expenses, real estate brokerage fees and expenses necessary for the repair and refurbishing of the condominium unit in question so that it could be sold. All monies remaining after deducting the foregoing items of expense shall be returned directly to the former owner of the condominium parcel in question.

In the event of violation by the owner of a condominium unit of any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations, as are now or hereafter constituted, the Corporation may, by direction of its Board of Administration, bring a suit for injunction or other action for the abatement of the existing condition or situation. Should the Corporation be successful in any action it brings, the defendant condominium parcel owner agrees to pay all costs incurred, including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

ARTICLE XI

Amendment

Prior to the first annual meeting of the membership of the Association, said first Board of Administration shall have full power to amend, alter or rescind these By-Laws by majority vote. Thereafter, these By-Laws may be amended in the following manner, as well as in the manner elsewhere provided:

Section 1. Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered.

OFF REC 11031 PG 357

Section 2. Resolution. A resolution adopting a proposed amendment may be proposed by either the Board of Administration or by the members entitled to vote. Directors and members not present at the meeting considering the amendment may express their approval in writing. Except as elsewhere provided, such approval must either be by:

A. Not less than three (3) Directors and by not less than fifty-one (51%) percent of all of the members entitled to vote; or

B. Until the first election of Directors, only by all of the Directors, provided the amendment does not increase the number of units nor alter the boundaries of the common elements.

No amendment to these By-Laws shall be passed which would operate to impair or prejudice the rights and/or liabilities of any institutional mortgagee as defined in the Declaration of Condominium.

Section 3. Agreement. In the alternative, an amendment may be made by an agreement executed by all members and mortgagees in the Condominium in the manner required for the execution of a deed, and such amendment shall be effective when recorded in the Public Records of Dade County, Florida.

Section 4. Proviso. No amendment shall discriminate against any unit owner nor against any unit or class or group of units unless the unit owners so affected shall consent; and no amendment shall change any unit nor the share in the common elements appurtenant to it, nor increase the owner's share in the common elements appurtenant to it, nor increase the owner's share of the common expenses, unless the record owner of the unit concerned and all record owners of mortgages thereon shall join in the execution of the amendment.

ARTICLE XII

Miscellaneous

Section 1. The definitions of particular words and phrases contained in the Condominium Act (now Chapter 718, Florida Statutes) or in the Declaration of Condominium shall apply to such words and phrases when used in these By-Laws.

Section 2. Should any provisions of these By-Laws be void or unenforceable in law or in equity, the remaining provisions shall, nevertheless, be and remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. Any lien or other encumbrance upon or against a condominium unit or parcel in favor of the Corporation is hereby declared to be, and shall be, subject, subordinate and inferior to the lien of any mortgage encumbering such unit or parcel where such mortgage is made to a bank, savings and loan association or life insurance company, or an institutional lender, as defined in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached and regardless of whether such mortgage was made or recorded before or after the aforesaid lien or encumbrance of the Corporation.

ARTICLE XIII

Recall of Directors

Subject to the provisions of Chapter 718.301, Florida Statutes, any member of the Board of Administration may be recalled and removed from office with or without cause by the vote or agreement, in writing, by a majority of all residential condominium unit owners. A special meeting of the residential condominium unit owners to recall a member or members of the Board of Administration may be called by ten (10%) percent of the residential condominium unit owners, giving notice of the meeting as required for a meeting of unit owners, and the notice shall state the purpose of the meeting.
